

The Presenters

Bill Coleby from Coleby Consulting has been a Risk Consultant for numerous arts events and organisations including the Melbourne Fringe Festival, Meat Market and Moomba. Bill has a great reputation for providing a practical, can-do approach to risk management in the arts and is a legend in managing risky arts events in Victoria.

The Jasmine Dance Group is a Chinese dance group based in Ashburton. The group performs at local festivals and engages with local community groups. In 2012, the group worked with seniors in residential care to promote physical, mental and social wellbeing.

St Paul's Anglican Church Canterbury, Music Program. In 2012, the Music Committee of St Paul's developed and presented a program of musical concerts for cross-generational enjoyment of music in partnership with members of the Australian Youth Choir.

Surrey Hills Progress Association (SHPA) Inc. aims to improve, preserve and advance the neighbourhood of Surrey Hills, Victoria. SHPA Inc. is a not-for-profit community organisation representing the interests of residents, traders and interest groups to maintain and develop Surrey Hills. In 2012, SHPA implemented a program of activities to celebrate and promote the history of Surrey Hills.

Lisa Derham is an experienced social worker who provides supervision, training and counselling in the community sector. She is experienced in working with diverse groups and workplaces developing workers' practical and reflective skills, and the prevention of burnout in the workplace.

The Presenters - continued

Julian Silverman is the Coordinator of Koorie Community Services Programs at RMIT's School of Global Studies, Social Science and Planning. He has devised and managed community projects in a range of local and international community development contexts in partnership with local communities. Julian is skilled at guiding new ideas to fruition and giving voice to emerging partnerships.

Brett de Hoedt founded Hootville Communications, a PR agency with a sense of humour that serves community sector clients. He is a consummate networker and is much in demand as a speaker, trainer and facilitator. Hootville Communications has worked with 300+ not-for-profits over 13 years and offers training in media, marketing and online communications.

Net Balance works with organisations to develop their sustainability and social responsibility goals. As Australia's leading practitioner for corporate Social Responsibility on Investment (SROI) delivery, they specialise in community investment and measuring social impact with a suite SROI methodologies and tools.

Connect, inspire, support in Boroondara

The Fuse is a monthly e-newsletter packed with Boroondara news, information and activities. Your copy of The Fuse is available here: <http://boroondara.vic.gov.au/our-city/community/onboard>

POSTAL ADDRESS Private Bag 1 Camberwell VIC 3124
T 9278 4444 | www.boroondara.vic.gov.au
TTY (speech and hearing impaired) 9278 4848
F 9278 4466 | boroondara@boroondara.vic.gov.au

2012-13

Community On Board

Connect, inspire, support in Boroondara

A networking and skill development program for local community groups, clubs and not-for-profit agencies in the City of Boroondara

BOROONDARA
City of Harmony

Risks and Event Management

Thursday 8 November 2012 from 6.30pm - 9pm
The Blackwood Room, Camberwell Civic Offices,
8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Bill Coleby from Coleby Consulting will present on the essential toolkit for developing quality Risk Management plans and systems for events. If you are managing an event, this workshop will assist you with pro-active Risk Management, Risk Assessments, Safety and Emergency Plans and Training. Risk Management Handbooks will be available for participants.

Community Development Grants Celebration

Tuesday 20 November 2012 from 6.30pm - 9pm
Parkview Room, Camberwell Civic Offices,
8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Join us in celebrating the awarding of this year's Annual Community Development Grants to 110 community organisations in the City of Boroondara. This event will showcase three very different projects funded last year. Guest presenters from the Jasmine Dance Group, St Paul's Anglican Church Canterbury Music Program, and Surrey Hills Progress Association Inc. will share their project stories and insights.

Strategies for Dealing with Challenging Behaviours

Wednesday 20 February 2013 from
12pm - 2.30pm, Alamein Neighbourhood and
Learning Centre, 49 Ashburn Grove, Ashburton.

Lisa Derham from Derham Supervision will provide key practical strategies and building blocks for strengthening your organisation's capacity to deal with difficult service users. This workshop is suitable for staff and volunteers from not-for-profit organisations. Lunch provided.

Project Incubator Sessions by two

Thursday 7 and 21 March 2013 from
6.30pm - 9pm, Blackwood Room, Camberwell
Civic Offices, 8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Julian Silverman from RMIT will lead the Project Incubator sessions. The Incubator is a new way for local organisations to develop project ideas and new partnerships with diverse communities. Participants will work with a project framework that includes project scoping, planning and development, resourcing, implementation and evaluation. The sessions will be run over two evenings and participation is through an expression of interest process. Places are limited to 10 participants.

Youth Workshop: How to Kick Off Great Ideas

Tuesday 26 March 2013 from 4pm - 6pm
The Blackwood Room, Camberwell Civic Offices,
8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Young people in Boroondara are invited to participate in a workshop hosted by Boroondara Youth Services. Come along to this session and find out about the step-by-step processes to turn great ideas into projects. The workshop will include how to research community issues, develop project ideas, make a project timeline, find the right funding, manage a project budget and follow-up and evaluate a project.

Grant Writing Workshop

Thursday 18 April 2013 from 10.30am - 12.30pm
Phyllis Hore Room, Kew Library, corner Cotham
Road and Civic Drive, Kew.

Organisations applying for a 2013 Boroondara Annual Community Development Grant won't want to miss this opportunity to talk about their project ideas and hear from Council officers about how they can turn ideas into a winning submission.

Community and Business Networking

Thursday 16 May 2013 from 6pm - 8.30pm
The Parkview Room, Camberwell Civic Offices,
8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Brett De Hoedt from Hootville Communications will host this popular annual networking opportunity between local businesses and community organisations. Brett will be joined by keynote speaker Ross Wyatt from Net Balance. Ross will speak about Social Return on Investment and Social Impact and the tools that are available to help you identify and measure the social, environmental and economic benefits of projects and programs for your organisation or business.

Social Media Savvy

Wednesday 19 June 2013 from 10am - 12.30pm
The Boroondara Room, Camberwell Civic
Offices, 8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

Brett De Hoedt leads this workshop on the latest social media applications. He will show how to get the most out of Facebook, Twitter, e-newsletters and blogs to maximise your organisation's online presence and keep track of your public profile and your membership. Brett will provide four weeks of online coaching to participants after the workshop.

All workshops are free of charge.

Bookings are essential.

To register, or to advise a staff member of your access requirements, please contact the Community Planning and Development Department on 9278 4753 or email onboard@boroondara.vic.gov.au